Holy Eucharist
The First Sunday of Epiphany
January 11, 2026 9:00 a.m. & 11:00 a.m.

Good morning, and welcome to Christ the King. We are so glad you have joined us, either in person or online, this morning. Our service is participatory and includes songs, prayers, and readings from the Bible. Everything is contained in the worship booklet and we want to invite everyone to respond with the text in bold. So that we might direct our focus to God, our service begins with a song of praise as the clergy and other servers enter in procession. Now, please stand as we sing our opening song.

The Collect for Purity

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Summary of the Law

Hear what our Lord Jesus Christ says: You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets. Matthew 22:37-40

Song of Praise - Christ Be Magnified

Were creation suddenly articulate / With a thousand tongues to lift one cry
Then from north to south and east to west / We'd hear Christ be magnified

Were the whole earth echoing His eminence / His name would burst from sea and sky
From rivers to the mountain tops / We'd hear Christ be magnified

O Christ be magnified / Let His praise arise
Christ be magnified in me
O Christ be magnified / From the altar of my life
Christ be magnified in me

When ev'ry creature finds its inmost melody / And ev'ry human heart its native cry
O then in one enraptured hymn of praise / We'll sing Christ be magnified (refrain)

I won't bow to idols / I'll stand strong and worship You
And if it puts me in the fire / I'll rejoice 'cause You're there too
I won't be formed by feelings / I hold fast to what is true
If the cross brings transformation / Then I'll be crucified with You

'Cause death is just the doorway / Into resurrection life
If I join You in Your sufferings / Then I'll join You when You rise
And when You return in glory / With all the angels and the saints
My heart will still be singing / My song will be the same

O Christ be magnified / Let His praise arise
Christ be magnified in me
O Christ be magnified / From the altar of my life
Christ be magnified in me (repeat)

The Collect

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And with your spirit.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Eternal Father, at the baptism of Jesus you revealed him to be your Son, and your Holy Spirit descended upon him like a dove: Grant that we, who are born again by water and the Spirit, may be faithful as your adopted children; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The next part of our service will focus on God's Word, found in the Bible. After each lesson, the reader will end by declaring, "The Word of the Lord." We are invited to respond with the words, "Thanks be to God."

The First Lesson Isaiah 42:1-9

A reading from the Book of Isaiah.

A reading from the prophet Isaiah.

¹ Behold my servant, whom I uphold,
my chosen, in whom my soul delights;
I have put my Spirit upon him;
he will bring forth justice to the nations.

² He will not cry aloud or lift up his voice, or make it heard in the street;
³ a bruised reed he will not break,
 and a faintly burning wick he will not quench;
 he will faithfully bring forth justice.
⁴ He will not grow faint or be discouraged till he has established justice in the earth;
 and the coastlands wait for his law.
⁵ Thus says God, the Lord, who created the heavens and stretched them out,
 who spread out the earth and what comes from it,
 who gives breath to the people on it and spirit to those who walk in it:
⁶ "I am the Lord; I have called you in righteousness;
 I will take you by the hand and keep you;
 I will give you as a covenant for the people,
 a light for the nations,
⁷ to open the eyes that are blind,
 to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon,
 from the prison those who sit in darkness.
⁸ I am the Lord; that is my name;
 my glory I give to no other,
 nor my praise to carved idols.
⁹ Behold, the former things have come to pass, and new things I now declare;
 before they spring forth
 I tell you of them."

The Word of the Lord.

20 I have found David my servant; *
 with my holy oil have I anointed him.

21 My hand shall hold him fast, ***
and my arm shall strengthen him.

22 The enemy shall not be able to do him violence; *
 the son of wickedness shall not hurt him.

- 23 I will smite his foes before his face  and strike down those who hate him.
- 24 My faithfulness and my mercy shall be with him, *
 and in my Name shall his horn be exalted.
- 25 I will give him dominion over the sea, ***
and with his right hand shall he rule the rivers.
- 26 He shall say to me, “You are my Father, *
 my God and the rock of my salvation.”
- 27 And I will make him my firstborn,  higher than the kings of the earth.
- 28 My mercy will I keep for him for ever, *
 and my covenant shall stand fast with him.
- 29 His seed will I make to endure for ever  and his throne as the days of heaven.

The Second Lesson Acts 10:34-38

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

³⁴ So Peter opened his mouth and said: “Truly I understand that God shows no partiality, ³⁵ but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. ³⁶ As for the word that he sent to Israel, preaching good news of peace through Jesus Christ (he is Lord of all), ³⁷ you yourselves know what happened throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee after the baptism that John proclaimed: ³⁸ how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power. He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.”

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Deacon reads the Gospel from the midst of the congregation to demonstrate how Jesus came down from heaven to live among his people. It reminds us that we are called to take his good news of hope out to the world. At least as early as the third century, Alleluias were sung in anticipation of the reading of the Gospel.

¹³Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to John, to be baptized by him. ¹⁴John would have prevented him, saying, “I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?” ¹⁵But Jesus answered him, “Let it be so now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness.” Then he consented. ¹⁶And when Jesus was baptized, immediately he went up from the water, and behold, the heavens were opened to him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming to rest on him; ¹⁷and behold, a voice from heaven said, “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.”

The Sermon: Mr. Kevin Stepp

At the conclusion of the sermon we affirm the core beliefs of the ancient church with a statement of faith known as the Nicene Creed. Please stand.

The People stand

Nicene Creed

Let us confess our faith in the words of the Nicene Creed:

Celebrant and People

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, visible and invisible.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
 of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made.
 For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary, and was made man.
 For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
 he suffered death and was buried.
 On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
 he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
 and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
 We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
 We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
 We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

As Christians we are called to be people of prayer. We will now pray for the needs of the church and the world with the Prayers of the People.

The Prayers of the People

Let us pray for the Church and for the world, saying, “hear our prayer.” I will pause after each bidding, and you may add your own petitions, either silently or aloud.

For the peace of the whole world, and for the well-being and unity of the people of God.

Reader Lord, in your mercy:

People Hear our prayer.

Reader Lord, in your mercy:

People Hear our prayer.

The Celebrant concludes with this collect

Heavenly Father, grant these our prayers for the sake of Jesus Christ, our only Mediator and Advocate, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

We worship a God who forgives. Every Sunday when we come together we confess our sins and receive the assurance that God has forgiven us.

The Confession and Absolution of Sin

The Deacon says the following

Let us humbly confess our sins to Almighty God.

Silence

The People kneel or sit as able

The Deacon and People pray

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Priest alone stands and says

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who in his great mercy has promised forgiveness of sins to all those who sincerely repent and with true faith turn to him, have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and bring you to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Comfortable Words

Please stand and hear the Word of God to all who truly turn to him.

Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Matthew 11:28

God so loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. John 3:16

The saying is trustworthy and deserving of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. 1 Timothy 1:15

If anyone sins, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. He is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world. 1 John 2:1-2

We now greet each other with the peace of Christ by shaking hands with those around us and saying to each other, "Peace be with you."

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

Welcome to Christ the King Anglican Church. If you are new or visiting with us today, or if you are watching online, we are so excited that you are here. If you would like more information on who we are and what we do, please fill out a Connect Card located at the end of each row. You can also fill out a digital Connect Card which can be found under the live video on our website or by scanning the QR code on the back of your booklet.

As we sing our next song, the ushers will bring forward bread and wine to be used for Holy Communion and then we will take a collection of financial offerings for the church. If you are visiting us today, please do not feel obligated to contribute. You are our guest and we want you to simply enjoy the service and fellowship. As the offering is brought forward we will sing together a joyful song of thanksgiving for all that God has provided.

We invite everyone to join us in singing the songs and responding with the bold text.

People And with your spirit.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them up to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Celebrant

It is right, our duty and our joy, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Through Jesus Christ our Lord, who took on our mortal flesh to reveal his glory; that he might bring us out of darkness and into his own glorious light.. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

The Sanctus

Hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry Ho -

- san na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - name of the Lord.

The Prayer of Consecration

The Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and when we had sinned against you and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent your only Son Jesus Christ into the world for our salvation. By the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary he became flesh and dwelt among us. In obedience to your will, he stretched out his arms upon the Cross and offered himself once for all, that by his suffering and death we might be saved. By his resurrection he broke the bonds of death, trampling Hell and Satan under his feet. As our great high priest, he ascended to your right hand in glory, that we might come with confidence before the throne of grace.

On the night that he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take, eat; this is my Body, which is given for you: Do this in remembrance of me."

Likewise, after supper, Jesus took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, “Drink this, all of you; for this is my Blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for you, and for many, for the forgiveness of sins: Whenever you drink it, do this in remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, and we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Word and Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ. Sanctify us also, that we may worthily receive this holy Sacrament, and be made one body with him, that he may dwell in us and we in him. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us with all your saints into the joy of your heavenly kingdom, where we shall see our Lord face to face.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ:

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

The Prayer of Humble Access

We do not presume to come to this your table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in your abundant and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under your table; but you are the same Lord, whose character is always to have mercy. Grant us, therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of your dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his body, and our souls washed through his most precious blood, and that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

Celebrant Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world,

People grant us your peace.

The Ministration of Communion

Celebrant says the following invitation

The gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated until the usher invites your row to come forward.

All baptized Christians who come to faith and repentance in Jesus Christ are invited to receive Holy Communion. If this does not describe you, we invite you to come forward with your arms crossed over your chest to receive a blessing from the priest.

For those receiving communion, you will be offered the Bread first and then the Wine. You may dip the Bread into the small chalice before consuming it or drink directly from the large chalice after consuming the Bread. Once you have received you may return to your seat via the center aisle.

Because we worship a God who hears and heals, prayer ministers will be available just outside the side door for anyone who would like to receive prayers of healing or guidance for yourself or others.

The Post Communion Prayer

Let us pray.

And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

A member parish of the Diocese of Western Anglicans and the Province of the Anglican Church in North America

WE ARE ROOTED, RELEVANT AND RELATIONAL.

Our Vision is to glorify God by being a holy and joyful family, devoted to growing in Christ and sharing his message of salvation. Our Mission is to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ by boldly following where the Lord leads us in worship, fellowship, teaching, healing, and serving the needs of others in the power of the Holy Spirit.
